BUREAU OF COMMERCIAL INFORMATION, BANGALORE CITY.

Dated 4th May 1920.

EMPLOYMENT REGISTRY OFFICE.

It is hereby announced for general information of the public that the Employment Exchange section attached to this Bureau has as its main object the bringing together of the employers who are in need of efficient labourers possessing technical qualifications on the one hand and the employees who are seeking employment and who possess the necessary technical qualifications on the other.

This Registry office keeps a record of all the vacancies notified by the various employers as also the various qualifications of the employees to enable this office to find out suitable vacancies for applicants who are trained in a particular line of work.

It may be mentioned here that this office undertakes to disseminate such useful information free of cost both to the employers and employees. Specimen forms for Employers who notify vacancies in their mills, workshops, factories, etc., and for employees seeking employment can be had on application to the undersigned and the same may be duly filled in and sent to the Employment Registry office attached to this Bureau. It is earnestly hoped that all who are interested in the matter will try to benefit themselves by making use of the Employment Exchange by furnishing to it information in the notified forms from time to time.

K. H. RAMAYYA,
Deputy Director of Commerce.
